

To Whom It may Concern: The FCC would best serve the public by following the example set by New Jersey. Why the FCC would even consider reversing a DO NOT CALL program which finally recognizes the needs of the citizen over the numerous groups/businesses trying to get into our wallets, wasting our time and interrupting our lives.

.